Letter From The General Manager

It's been quite a year, both for me and for WRUW-FM. I had little idea of what I was getting myself into when I became GM last summer. However chaotic, stressful, and time-consuming it's been, I regret none of it. This has been one of the most rewarding experiences of my life.

In particular, the value of college radio stations like WRUW, WCSB, and others has become even more obvious to me. Having been to other cities with little or no college radio, I clearly see the importance of WRUW and like-minded stations. Without such noncommercial radio, people's access to nonmainstream music is significantly limited. Such bands come to town less often or not at all. Local artists get less exposure, not to mention that their own musical influences may not be so vast. Basically, the music "scene" isn't that great, and certainly not much in comparison to Cleveland's. It's peculiar how the lack of accessibility to nonmainstream music can effect people's lives. Hey, I've been there.

But then I think of Cleveland and my sweet WRUW. Sure, one can hear music on WRUW not played elsewhere: world music, polka, reggae, folk, showtunes, blues, jazz, (real) heavy rock, techno, metal, hip hop, and so on. The strength of WRUW lies in our music library of nearly 100,000 recordings. For every song heard on commercial radio, there are hundreds of other innovative ones we can play. With our shows and concerts like Live From Cleveland, Studio-A-Rama, and the Folk And International Festival, local musicians have the opportunity to reach people they otherwise might not. And through our public affairs shows, Clevelanders can develop programs focusing on various topics of their choice.

WRUW and other non-commercial stations have the freedom to broadcast (almost) whatever, whenever. This is possible only because of supportive universities and listener donations during telethons. Thank you for your pledges during WRUW's spring telethon. It's always heartening to know that others recognize the value of college radio. And, as my year as GM comes to an end, a great big kiss to the WRUW staff, without whose help I would have drowned long ago.

STUDIO-A-RAMA TURNS 15!

Concert To Be Held August 5th

•Morsel's Miriam Cabrera at Studio-A '94

Summer means more great programming on 91.1, and it also means it's time for Studio-A-Rama. If you've been to one in the past, you know it's a great time. If you haven't been to one, then I would like to invite you personally.

This year's concert will be our 15th annual Studio-A-Rama. The all-day live music festival is an outgrowth of our weekly, hour-long Live From Cleveland (formerly Live From Studio A) show now aired Thursdays at 10 p.m. and is a way to thank you, our listeners for your support. The general format of show is to feature local and regional bands throughout the day and cap off the evening with a featured national band.

Local and regional bands that have performed in the past include the Vivians, Craw, Prisonshake, Gem, Morsel, Jehovah Waitresses, Coltrane Wreck, the Beatnik Termites, Screwtractor, A.T.S., Arson Garden, Bone Of Contention, and Psychobilly Cadillac. Headliners have included Mule, NRG Ensemble, the Didjits, Naked Raygun, Unrest, Wreck, and Universal Congress Of.

Listen to WRUW near the end of June for the final announcement of the upcoming line-up and for further details. I hope you can make it this summer on Saturday August 5th from 2 p.m. until midnight. As always, Studio-A-Rama is held right outside the station near the corner of Ford and Bellflower Roads in the Mather Memorial Courtyard on the CWRU campus. It'll be a rockin' day of awesome live (and free!) music. Thanks again to you, our listeners, for your support.

TALES FROM THE 1995 RADIOTHON!

TALES FROM THE 1995 RADIOTHON!

By Ron Cass, Telethon Coordinator

For one week each spring, WRUW-FM holds its annual on-air Radiothon. During this week, programmers ask listeners to pledge their support to WRUW in the form of monetary donations. In return, donors can receive CDs and cassettes, WRUW logo shirts and coffee mugs. All donors also receive the WRUW Program Guide for one year.

This year's Radiothon was held the week of March 20th to the 27th. During the Radiothon, our listeners pledged their support to the entire range of WRUW programming. Almost all shows received support, which is important because one third of the money received during a show will go towards purchasing music for the format of that show.

This year's donations had an immediate impact at WRUW. Both of our air studio CD players recently broke down and needed to be replaced, and Radiothon money was used to do this. Also, one third of the total amount received goes towards funding our upcoming summer concerts, Studio-A-Rama and the Folk And International Festival.

To our donors, we thank you for your generous support, and you should be receiving your premiums soon. Remember, if you charged your donation to your Visa, Mastercard or Discover card, your donation will appear as "CWRU Bookstore" on your credit card statement.

But the Radiothon is not over yet! Some of our listeners who pledged their support have not yet sent in their donation. It's never too late for you to send yours in, and we still have your premium waiting and ready to send out when we receive it.

It's also never too late to make a new donation to the WRUW Radiothon. Any amount of money would be welcome and would help. If you're interested in receiving one of our premiums, they're still available for the following donations:

$15: WRUW-FM button, bumper sticker, and one year's subscription to the Program Guide.

$25: WRUW t-shirt (in M, L, XL and XXL sizes).

$35: WRUW sweatshirt (in M, L, XL and XXL sizes).

For each $15 added to one of these pledges from $25 to $50, you will receive an additional premium. If you donated last year, we'll send you an extra premium, too. You can send your check to WRUW-FM Radiothon, 11220 Bellflower Road, Cleveland OH 44106. If you prefer, you can send us your Visa, Mastercard or Discover card number and expiration date. For the t-shirt and sweatshirt premiums, please remember to include your shirt size. ■

SUMMER PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS

SUNDAY

2:00 am THE RIDDIM AND RHYME BANK. Madd Money Mike: A four-hour mix of hip-hop and reggae dancehall flavor. Dub style urban flavor pounding hard through a radio near you.

6:00 am WHAT THE WEREKITTEN WANTS. The Werekitten: A little hilarity with a barely awake werkitten. Freeform madness and a touch of folk. Random connections and musings abound.

9:00 am UBIQUITOUS WORLD CONSCIOUSNESS. Matt Hurd: Spiraling, kind, and random hybrid world music for the urban shaman. Superb for herbal relaxation and for meditation.

Noon SUNDAY MATINEE. David Caban: The best, the worst, and everything in between from Broadway and Hollywood musicals. A revue show of old classics and new "hits!" Listen for specials this summer!

2:00 pm BLUES FOR SADIE. Charlie: A spoonful of good times, yeah, that's the blues.

4:00 pm TOOFAN. DJ Agni: Popular music by artists from the Indian subcontinent.

8:00 pm HERITAGE IS. Steve Hunder: Music for a warm summer evening, blues, Cajun, zydeco, international and other earthy roots. Mix up your favorite summertime beverage, head for the porch, and tune in.

10:00 pm SHUTDOWN. Randall: Featuring hardcore, straight-edge and Culture Shock. Still da deffist 1000 watts of hardcore phlayva.

Midnight 7 INCHES OF PURE LOVE. Jen: If it's on vinyl, I'll play it baby.

10:00 pm POWERSURGE. John Elway: I am here to torment Cleveland again, this time with metal, punk, industrial, classic metal, and death metal!!!

Midnight B-BOY TRANSMISSIONS. Martin: "Rap is business music, hip-hop is cultural music." -L.O.N.S. Hip-hop purism.

TUESDAY

2:00 am BLUE LIGHT SPECIAL. Kelvin: Two styles—hard and soft. A flavorful blend of only the best. It doesn't taste like fish.

6:00 am SYN. Flash: Synthetic music compiled in an experimental fashion. An expressive collage of ambient noise: music. Continuous currents with changing levels of energy.

9:00 am UTOPIA. Dave Pinter: "From ocean to ocean there will be change: The new world is approaching, nothing remains the same." -Model 500

11:30 am HEAD-TO-HEAD: Professor Kim Shienbaum of Rutgers University hosts this show which presents two controversial points of view from educators, authors and government officials on today's major issues.

Noon M.D.M.A. Pezz: Selected choons from the Roland™ palindrome family (101-109) that'll make your bass bins shatter.

2:00 pm ANYTHING BUT PACHELBEL. Dan: Obscure, mostly dead, primarily European composers.
